Wehlener Sonnenuhr Riesling Spatlese 2022

Mosel, Allemagne

Légèrement introverti au départ, il montre une belle minéralité et vivacité, lui conférant beaucoup d'énergie.

De délicates senteurs de pommiers en fleurs et de pêches blanches se diffusent au nez menant à un palais exhibant des arômes de fleur de jasmin, d'écorce d'oranges, de jus de citron vert et de sel de mer. Il est fin et vibrant, développe des arômes d'abricots glacés et d'anis perdurant dans une longue finale.

Ce Riesling est prêt à être dégusté aujourd'hui ou reposera parfaitement en cave jusqu'en 2025.

Alcool :8,00 %

Composition: 100% Riesling

Wehlener Sonnenuhr Riesling Spatlese 2022

James Suckling (JS) : 96 Points (2022)

Here's a very classic Mosel Spatlese with exactly the combination of richness, elegance and delicacy that makes this category unique. Such delicate white peach and sliced pear, rose and honeysuckle aromas. Very long finish that is as succulent as it is refined. You just want to linger there for as long as you can. Drink or hold.

Decanter (DCT) : 95 Points (2022)

Tasted young, this sprightly spätlese announces itself with strikes of flint and an intensely smoky, earthen veil of reduction. With a bit of time and aeration (even 15 minutes introduces a remarkable transformation) you'll find deep, dazzling layers of crisp white peach, lime and lemongrass speckled with salt and stone. It's a leaner expression of the Wehlener Sonnenuhr, with a delicacy of texture that juxtaposes a piercing, pure fruit profile. A thirst-quenching sip with just a hint of sweetness that lingers on the finish. Hold until 2026 if possible, it will develop stunningly for decades.

Vinous (Antonio Galloni) (VN) : 94 Points (2022)

The 2022 Riesling Wehlener Sonnenuhr Spätlese #11 just shyly speaks of white peach compote on the nose, nothing more. The palate is clear-cut. It flashes a steely slate tone before mollifying it with riper fruit and aromatic citrus, so you are undoubtedly aware of its natural colors. This is stone and poise, depth and salty slate, adorning its essential, stony nature with white peach, ripe, expressive tangerine and a fillip of zesty spice on the finish. Light, restrained and elegant. (Medium) (AK) (10/2023)
