

Bodegas Palacios Remondo

Propiedad 2024

Rioja, Espagne

Produite uniquement les grandes années, La cuvée Propiedad présente une robe rubis aux reflets cuivrés. Le nez se développe sur les fruits rouges et du bois de santal. La bouche est à la fois ample, concentrée et raffinée sur les fruits rouges (cerise et fraise) avec des notes florales. Un Rioja de belle facture et en phase avec la région d'où il provient ce qui n'est pas toujours le cas en Rioja.

PALACIOS | REMONDO

Robert Parker (RP) : 96 Points (2021)

The Propiedad bottling is not produced every year, and the 2021 Propiedad, mostly Garnacha (with 10% other grapes) from old organically farmed and head-pruned vines in the parajes of Las Mulgas, Cabecilla de la Ra and Valmira, fermented in oak vats with indigenous yeasts. It has the signature of this cuvée in a cooler year: elegant and fresh but not lacking power or concentration. It has a velvety, precise and seamless palate, with great freshness and balance, red berry and crushed stone flavors and a citrus twist of freshness. There is a lot more depth and complexity compared with the already exceptional La Montesa. It's fine-boned and elegant, with very fine tannins and a precise and clean finish. It's also powerful and ripe at 14.5% alcohol, keeping a pH of 3.5 and 5.3 grams of acidity. 46,400 bottles produced. It was bottled in March 2023 after it spent 10 months in oak vats and barrels of different sizes.

James Suckling (JS) : 94 Points (2020)

Medium ruby hue, with a bright and racy nose that's full of pretty berries, redcurrants, fresh strawberries and potpourri. Medium-bodied and naturally juicy on the palate, showing lots of crunch and drinkability. Fresh, transparent and silky.
