Estate Chardonnay 2020

Hawkes Bay, New Zealand

Region and Vineyards

The grapes for the Te Mata Estate Chardonnay were harvested between 15 February and 2 March 2021 from the estate's vineyards in the Woodthorpe Terraces, Bridge Pā Triangle, and Havelock Hills subregions of Hawke's Bay. These vineyards benefit from the region's warm maritime climate and well-draining soils, which allow the grapes to develop rich, ripe flavors while maintaining fresh acidity.

Hawke's Bay is known for producing some of New Zealand's most acclaimed Chardonnays due to its ideal climate conditions and diverse terroir. The proximity to both the Pacific Ocean and mountain ranges creates a balanced climate, perfect for the slow ripening of Chardonnay grapes.

Winemaking

The Te Mata Estate Chardonnay was made using a combination of tank fermentation to preserve fresh varietal aromas and vibrant fruit expression, alongside some barrel fermentation and barrel maturation on lees. This process included malolactic fermentation, which adds richness and complexity, integrating the wine's flavors harmoniously.

The combination of these techniques results in a wine that showcases both clarity and complexity. The influence of time in oak barrels enhances the depth of flavor while maintaining a clean, bright fruit character .

Tasting Notes

- Color: A pale gold with brilliant clarity.
- Aroma: On the nose, the wine bursts with aromas of ripe grapefruit, lemon, white peach, and pineapple, accompanied by notes of freshly baked sourdough.
- Palate: The palate reveals a rich texture, with flavors of roast cashew, nougat, and cinnamon, balanced by vibrant acidity and a savory hint of sea salt. The finish is long and sustained, showcasing the wine's intensity and detail.

Estate Chardonnay 2020

Did You Know?

Te Mata Estate, founded in 1896, is one of New Zealand's oldest family-owned wineries. It remains committed to producing estate-grown and estate-bottled wines, focusing exclusively on vineyards located in Hawke's Bay.

Wine Pairing Ideas

- Grilled seafood: The wine's bright acidity and complex flavors make it an ideal match for dishes like grilled lobster or pan-seared scallops.
- Roast chicken with herbs: The wine's balance of richness and acidity complements the savory flavors of herb-roasted chicken.
- Creamy pasta dishes: The Chardonnay's buttery notes pair well with creamy pastas such as fettuccine Alfredo.
- Soft cheeses: The wine's complex palate matches perfectly with brie or Camembert.

Robert Parker (RP): 92 Points (2016)

Classic scents of toasted hazelnuts and grilled peaches emerge on the nose of the 2016 Elston Chardonnay. It's completely barrel fermented and aged in a mix of used and new French oak, but this medium-bodied wine doesn't seem overoaked at all, as bright, citrusy beams of fruit shine on the long, elegant finish.
