Region and Vineyards

The Brunello di Montalcino DOCG region is renowned worldwide for its exceptional wines made exclusively from Sangiovese. Argiano's vineyards, located in Sant'Angelo in Colle, rest at altitudes between 280 and 310 meters above sea level, ensuring excellent sun exposure and ventilation for optimal ripening.

The soils are rich in marl and ancient clays with a high concentration of limestone, contributing to the wine's distinctive minerality. The vines, aged between 12 and 55 years, are cultivated organically using the spurred cordon and guyot training systems. Yields are carefully limited to preserve quality.

Winemaking

The 2018 vintage experienced varied climatic conditions, including frost in early spring, substantial rainfall in May, and cooler July temperatures that delayed the vines' phenological stages. A favorable north wind in September ensured healthy, concentrated grapes.

Harvesting took place in early October. The winemaking process began with a pre-fermentation cold maceration for four days, followed by a three-week fermentation in steel and natural cement tanks at temperatures below 26°C. Malolactic fermentation occurred in concrete tanks, enhancing the wine's texture and balance.

The wine aged for approximately 30 months in Slavonian and French oak barrels of various capacities (10 to 50 hectoliters). After bottling in April and May under auspicious lunar phases, the wine underwent extended bottle aging to refine its character.

WINEENTHUSIAST

Like a good Valentine's Day party, everything is shades of red on the vibrant, sanguine nose, from strawberries and cranberries to savory notes of pennies, brick and crisp leather. Citrus joins the cranberries on a bright, acidic palate, but a meaty, bitter finish creates balance. Dynamic fruit stands up to authoritative, unapologetic tannins. (DC) (11/2023)

Rose, strawberry and cherry aromas and flavors are the main themes in this red, along with wild herb, mineral and cut hay accents. Racy and full of energy, with a long, saturated finish. Best from 2025 through 2042.

Scents of fresh rose petals unfurl in the glass, signaling a high-toned Brunello that is packed with tangy red cherry and berry flavors. There's plenty of power and depth here, but also a delicacy in the intense floral aromas and finely honed tannins that combine immediate appeal with excellent aging potential.
