FELTON ROAD

Block 2 Chardonnay 2022

Central Otago, New Zealand

Region and Vineyards

Situated in the Bannockburn subregion of Central Otago, New Zealand, the Block 2 vineyard benefits from an east-facing slope with deep, angular schist soils that promote drainage and mineral expression. The vineyard, planted in 1992, lies immediately north of Block 3 within The Elms estate, showcasing a terroir renowned for producing expressive and elegant wines.

The estate is certified biodynamic and organic (BioGro and Demeter), with practices that prioritize vine balance, biodiversity, and soil health. Techniques such as hand pruning, shoot thinning, and cover cropping ensure the vines remain in harmony with their environment, producing fruit of optimal quality. The Bannockburn region's continental climate—marked by warm days and cool nights—intensifies the development of flavor and acidity in the grapes.

Winemaking

The 2022 Felton Road Block 2 Chardonnay is crafted with a hands-off approach, emphasizing the vineyard's unique characteristics. Grapes from the Mendoza clone were whole-bunch pressed and gravity-flowed into seasoned French oak barrels (only 4% new), where fermentation occurred with indigenous yeasts.

The wine underwent complete malolactic fermentation over spring and summer, contributing a silky texture and complexity. It aged for 16 months in barrels, including 11 months on gross lees, adding depth and mouthfeel. True to Felton Road's philosophy, the wine was not fined or filtered, ensuring its purity and precise representation of the vineyard.

Tasting Notes

- Color: Brilliant pale gold with subtle green highlights.
- Aroma: Enticing notes of citrus blossom, elderflower, and zesty lemon, underscored by hints of white peach and a subtle mineral character.
- Palate: A refined and balanced palate, showcasing flavors of melon, white peach, and a touch of creaminess from the lees aging. The schist soils contribute a lively mineral backbone, leading to a clean, sustained finish with vibrant acidity.

Did you know?

The Block 2 vineyard is positioned on a sheltered slope, giving the wine its hallmark elderflower and mineral characteristics. Felton Road has championed sustainable viticulture since its inception in 1991, making it one of New Zealand's leaders in organic and biodynamic winemaking.

Wine Pairing Ideas

- Grilled lobster with lemon butter: The wine's citrus and mineral notes perfectly complement the richness of lobster.
- Pan-seared salmon with herb cream sauce: The creamy mid-palate and acidity cut through the richness of the dish, while enhancing its herbal nuances.
- Mushroom risotto with Parmesan: The wine's silky texture and earthy minerality harmonize beautifully with the umami flavors of the risotto.
- Goat cheese tart with caramelized onions: The wine's floral and citrus qualities balance the tanginess of the cheese and sweetness of the onions.

Robert Parker (RP) : 94 Points (2022)

The 2022 Block 2 Chardonnay was bottled, along with the Block 6 Chardonnay, in September 2023, as opposed to the 2022 Bannockburn Chardonnay which was bottled in May of 2023. The same winemaking (aside from a difference in the time spent in oak) across the cuvées serves to highlight the vineyard differences. This Block 2 is far more aromatically restrained and certainly hides the voluminous fruit behind a sheath of mineral phenolics. The wine is powerful but restrained and pure in its way. It's lovely, with a gentle brine note through the finish. 14% alcohol, sealed under screw cap.
