Wachau, Austria

Region and Vineyards

The Viesslinger Stern vineyard, also referred to simply as Stern, is located in the cooler subregion of Spitzer Graben in the Wachau. This small, 0.7-hectare monopole vineyard is planted on steep terraces with schist-rich soils, which imbue the wine with intense minerality and structure. The vineyard's high altitude and cool microclimate promote a slow ripening process, resulting in grapes with vibrant acidity and complex, concentrated flavors. Muthenthaler's dedication to organic farming, though not officially certified, ensures that the vineyard is cultivated sustainably and with great respect for the land.

The combination of old vines, schist soils, and the cooler climate of Spitzer Graben is key to producing a wine with remarkable clarity and minerality, characteristics for which Wachau Rieslings are renowned.

Winemaking

The Monopol Stern Riesling is vinified using low-intervention techniques to allow the terroir to fully express itself. The grapes are hand-harvested from the vineyard's 60-year-old vines and fermented in large oak foudres. After fermentation, the wine is aged for 12 months on its lees in a single 600-liter oak barrel, enhancing the texture and complexity without overshadowing the wine's natural fruit character.

This extended lees aging imparts a creamy texture and enhances the wine's depth, while the choice of neutral oak ensures that the Riesling's vibrant acidity and mineral backbone remain at the forefront. The restrained oak influence allows for a seamless integration of flavors, creating a balanced and sophisticated wine.

Robert Parker (RP) : 96 Points (2022)

From pure schist and aged in a large acacia vat, Muthenthaler's Viesslinger 2022 Riesling Ried Stern Monopol opens with a clear, defined, lemony and stony bouquet that indicates depth, iodine and substance. Full-bodied and rich yet pure and elegant on the palate, this is a textured and saline-finishing dry Riesling that is still extremely young and should be cellared for at least another 6 to 8 years. This is a promising Stern with an intense and mouthwatering finish, whereas the textural elements still have to be built during bottle aging. Natural cork. Tasted in March 2024.
