Region and Vineyards

The Marjorie Vineyard is located in the Eola-Amity Hills AVA within Oregon's renowned Willamette Valley. This vineyard was first established in 1982 with heritage clones of Pinot Noir such as Pommard, Wädenswil, and Martini. It was replanted starting in 2004 due to phylloxera, ensuring the continued production of exceptional fruit while preserving the vineyard's legacy.

Situated on a gentle, east-facing slope, the vineyard enjoys the influence of the Van Duzer Corridor, where cool breezes from the Pacific Ocean moderate temperatures, extending the growing season. The vines are rooted in volcanic soils, including Columbia River Basalts such as Saum, Yamhill, and Witzel, which impart structure and minerality to the wine.

Winemaking

This vintage benefitted from ideal growing conditions, resulting in a balanced and expressive wine. The grapes were hand-harvested and underwent 48% whole-cluster fermentation, which enhances complexity and aromatic lift.

Fermentation was conducted with 100% native yeast, reflecting the vineyard's unique microbiome. Following fermentation, the wine was aged for 17 months on its lees in 36% new French oak barrels, which adds depth and integrates the wine's vibrant red fruit profile with subtle notes of spice. The wine was bottled unfined and unfiltered, preserving its purity and character.

Vinous (Antonio Galloni) (VN): 96 Points (2019)

Bright ruby-red. Assertive red berry, cherry, lavender and incense scents show outstanding clarity and spicy lift. Concentrated yet nervy black raspberry, cherry cola, spicecake and floral pastille flavors pick up a hint of smokiness. A discreet blood orange nuance adds refreshing cut to the strikingly long finish, which features polished tannins and reverberating spice and floral notes. 50% whole clusters and 48% new French oak. James Suckling (JS): 95 Points (2019)

There's purity of fruit to this pinot with strawberry and floral aromas that follow through to a medium body with ultra-fine, firm tannins and pretty, tangy acidity. Lemon undertones. Needs time to open. Better after 2024. (JS)
