Kamptal, Austria

Region and Vineyards

The Kamptal DAC in Lower Austria is one of the country's most distinguished wine-growing regions, known for its picturesque, terraced vineyards. The region takes its name from the Kamp River, which influences the microclimate, providing the ideal conditions for slow ripening.

The grapes for Grüner Veltliner Kamptaler Terrassen are sourced from terraced vineyards surrounding Langenlois, the region's viticultural heart. The terraces feature two key types of soils that shape the wine's character:

- Primary rock soils in the upper terraces, composed of granite and mica slate, lend the wine a pronounced minerality and freshness.
- Loess soils in the lower terraces contribute richness, body, and ripe fruit flavors, adding to the wine's complexity.

This blend of terroirs and elevations results in a wine that balances vigor and elegance, perfectly expressing the Kamptal region's unique qualities.

Winemaking

The grapes for Grüner Veltliner Kamptaler Terrassen are hand-harvested to ensure precision and quality. Following careful sorting, the juice undergoes fermentation in stainless steel tanks at controlled, cool temperatures. This preserves the wine's vibrant fruit character and lively acidity.

To enhance texture and complexity, the wine is matured on its fine lees for several months before bottling. This method maintains the wine's freshness while introducing subtle layers of richness and finesse, ensuring a pure and authentic expression of Grüner Veltliner.

Did You Know?

Grüner Veltliner, Austria's flagship grape variety, is renowned for its versatility and ability to age gracefully. Wines from Kamptal, particularly those grown on the terraces, are prized for their crisp acidity, spice, and clear expression of terroir.

Wine Pairing Ideas

- Grilled fish with lemon and herbs: The vibrant acidity and minerality of the wine enhance the delicate flavors of grilled seafood.
- Sushi and sashimi: Its crisp, clean profile pairs beautifully with the fresh, subtle umami of raw fish.
- Asian-inspired dishes with mild spice: The wine's white pepper notes complement dishes like Thai green curry or ginger soy chicken.
- Wiener Schnitzel: A classic Austrian pairing, where the wine's freshness balances the richness of the dish.

James Suckling (JS) : 93 Points (2023)

Cool and elegant, yet juicy and wonderfully fresh, this medium-bodied grüner veltliner has the garden herb and celery aromas of the grape. As lightly as this skips over the palate, and as crisp as it is in the finish, there's very good substance here. It should stay fresh for quite a few years. From organically grown grapes. Drink or hold. Screw cap.

Robert Parker (RP) : 92 Points (2023)

Just bottled with 12.5% stated alcohol, the incredibly charming 2023 Grüner Veltliner Terrassen opens with an irresistible, pure, bright and intense as well as coolish and aromatic bouquet of white seed fruits yet also a saline background. Lean, fresh and juicy on the palate, this is a medium-bodied, saline, savory and highly stimulating Veltliner that will probably never taste as attractive as in its first year after bottling. It's an irresistible picture-book Veltliner. Screw cap. Tasted end of March 2023.(SR)
