

Vie di Romans

Piere Sauvignon Blanc 2022

Friuli, Italy

Straw yellow, this wine has an open, aromatic nose.

Fresh peach and greengage perfumes are complemented by a hint of tropical fruit.

The wine has excellent balance in the mouth between a rounded, fuller style of Sauvignon and the freshness that is characteristic of this region, finishing with a zesty citrus tang.

Alcohol :14,00 %

Composition: 100% Sauvignon Blanc

Vie di Romans

Piere Sauvignon Blanc 2022

James Suckling (JS) : 96 Points (2019)

The purity of fruit in this is really something, offering salt, chalk, sliced mango and papaya. It's full and phenolic with layers of fruit and so much richness at the end. Yet, it's ever so long and intense. Lasts for minutes. Drink or hold.

James Suckling (JS) : 94 Points (2018)

Wild aromas of peaches and fresh herbs with lemons follow through to a full body and creamy texture. Very tangy, fruity and intense. Licorice and stone notes, too. Drink now.

Robert Parker (RP) : 91 Points (2018)

The Vie di Romans 2018 Friuli Isonzo Sauvignon Blanc Piere reveals a zesty and pure expression of the grape that does not hold back aromatically in this vintage. The bouquet is redolent of citrus, exotic fruit, green papaya and a pronounced touch of green olive. Indeed, those greenish aromas gain strength as the wine warms in the glass. Subtle mineral notes settle on the close and reinforce this wine's lean, crisp personality. This wine ages on the lees in stainless steel vats for nine months.
