SCHLOSS LIESER
THOMAS HAAG

Juffer Sonnenuhr Riesling Spatlese 2021

Mosel, Germany

A little more reticence than the Niederberg Helden with salted limes and slate spice on the nose. On the palate this packs more punch and drive, with mineral edges and an invigorating sense of restrained energy.

If Niederberg is all grace this year, Brauneberger Juffer Sonnenuhr is all about vitality. Precise, racy flavours of red apple, ruby grapefruit, slate and a profound and typical minerality are all on show, long, taut and with great nervosity.

THOMAS HAAG

Juffer Sonnenuhr Riesling Spatlese 2021

Robert Parker (RP) : 93 Points (2021)

Thomas Haag's 2021 Juffer Sonnenuhr Spätlese is still pretty reductive and shows a bright and lemon-scented nose of ripe and savory Riesling berries. Delicate and fresh on the palate, with some coolish-greenish gooseberry nuances, this is a very fine and elegant, well-balanced, stimulating and saline-finishing JSU that still needs a bit of time. 7.5% stated alcohol. Natural cork. Tasted at the domaine in July 2022.
