Catena Chardonnay 2021

Mendoza, Argentina

Region and Vineyards

The Catena Zapata estate sources its Chardonnay grapes from three distinguished vineyards in the Mendoza region: Domingo, La Pirámide, and Adrianna. These vineyards are located at elevations ranging from 950 to 1450 meters above sea level, benefiting from the cooler temperatures and greater diurnal temperature variations essential for developing complex flavors and maintaining acidity in the grapes.

The soils in these vineyards are predominantly gravel and stony, providing excellent drainage and contributing to the wine's mineral character. The vines are trained using the Vertical Shoot Positioning (VSP) system, optimizing sunlight exposure and air circulation. With a vine density of 2,200 vines per acre and a yield of 2.5-3 tons per acre, the focus is on quality over quantity, ensuring each grape contributes to the wine's concentrated flavors.

Winemaking

The Catena Chardonnay is composed of 100% Chardonnay. The grapes are hand-harvested between March and April to ensure optimal ripeness. Fermentation occurs in a combination of barrels and stainless steel tanks, with the temperature carefully controlled to preserve the wine's aromatic complexity. Batonnage is employed to enhance texture, and partial malolactic fermentation adds a layer of richness.

The wine is aged for 10 months in 225-liter barriques, with new to two-year-old French oak contributing subtle vanilla notes and structure. After aging in barrels, the wine undergoes an additional 12 months of bottle aging to achieve perfect balance and integration of flavors.

Wines & Spirits (W&S) : 94 Points (2021)

With complexity in spades, this chardonnay instantly caught our panel's attention with its deeply savory dried-tobacco aromas—one taster went to hand-rolled cigarettes, another to pipe tobacco. A blend from four of Catena's vineyards, its fruit operates on two levels—heady, clean honeyed Anjou pear over a green -papaya-salad textural chew.

James Suckling (JS) : 92 Points (2021)

Peaches, baked apples, apricot pie and lemon curd on the nose. Medium-bodied with fresh acidity and a creamy, succulent palate. Clean and fresh.

Robert Parker (RP) : 92 Points (2021)

The 2021 Catena Chardonnay is vibrant and harmonious, with great balance and freshness, varietal with elegant and shy aromas of white flowers and a long, dry finish with purity of flavors, unnoticeable oak and very good overall balance.
