

Matetic

EQ Coastal Sauvignon Blanc 2021

Casablanca Valley, Chile

This wine is a very pale yellow colour, with light green hues. The nose is complex and delicate, with aromas of citrus and tropical fruit such as mango, papaya, cherimoya and lime peel, intertwined with herbs notes.

Refreshingly crisp on the palate, with concentrated fruit flavours and a persistent minerality on the finish.

Alcohol :13,50 %

Composition: 100% Sauvignon
Blanc

EQ Coastal Sauvignon Blanc 2021

Robert Parker (RP) : 93 Points (2019)

Matetic's Sauvignon Blanc has a great quality/price ratio, and even the top-of-the-range 2019 EQ Coastal Sauvignon Blanc sells for under $20. They want a Sauvignon for the table, one that combines freshness and volume. They fermented part of it in used barrels and concrete, and it matured with the lees for four months in barrique and concrete eggs. This is more restrained—not as aromatic, less herbal—but the palate is terribly juicy and mineral, focused and makes you salivate. It should work wonders with modern Peruvian gastronomy.

James Suckling (JS) : 92 Points (2019)

Subtle, minerally nose. Some chili pepper and wet stones. Very tensile, taut palate with a lithe, transparent texture. Peaches on the palate with a chalky accent. Very clean and long. A serious sauvignon blanc. Around 1/3 fermented in old barrels, 1/3 in 700L concrete eggs and 1/3 in stainless steel tanks. Drink now.

Tim Atkin (TA) : 90 Points (2019)

Julio Bastías uses grapes from Matetic's Valle Hermoso plantings, located eight kilo meter from the Pacific, to make this barrel and amphora-aged Sauvignon Blanc. Gooseberry and passion fruit flavors are supported by racy, saline acidity. 2020-22
