

Louis Jadot

Beaune 1er Cru Boucherottes 2016

Burgundy, France

Beaune 1er Cru "Boucherottes" is an aromatic, full bodied wine of considerable structure and complexity tempered by a rich fruit roundness and plump, sumptuous texture.

It will accompany most meat dishes, whether they be light or strongly sauced, as well as most cheese.

Beaune 1er Cru Boucherottes 2016

Robert Parker (RP) : 93 Points (2015)

The 2015 Beaune 1er Cru Les Boucherottes has a subtle bouquet that comes across more introspective than the 2015 Beaune Clos des Couchereaux, the fruit darker but equally well defined. The palate is medium-bodied with fine, tensile tannin - plenty of tart red cherry fruit, quite saline in the mouth leading to an understated but very focused finish. This is another top-notch Beaune Premier Cru from Louis Jadot. Range: 91-93

James Suckling (JS) : 92 Points (2014)

So decadent and earthy with berry and citrus undertones. Medium body, firm and chewy tannins and a stone and berry undertone. Concrete shine through. Muscular. Drink in 2020 but fun to try now.
