

Errazuriz

A rich and full-bodied Syrah that is full of succulent, ripe black fruit characters, smoky spice, soft tannins and a long smooth finish.

La Cumbre 2018

Aconcagua Valley, Chile

Ruby-red in colour with an intense, attractive nose where black fruits such as blueberries and blackberries predominate, complemented by elegant notes of black pepper and a bit of smoke.

The robust palate has a level of acidity that lends freshness and elegance.

Meaty flavours and ripe fruit such as black cherries, blackberries, and plum combine with sweet flavours contributed by the oak.

The finish is sweet and long, with excellent soft tannins.

Alcohol :14,50 %

Composition: 100% Syrah

ERRAZURIZ

La Cumbre 2018

Robert Parker (RP) : 93 Points (2018)

The 2018 La Cumbre is 96% Syrah and 4% Viognier à la Côte-Rôtie with a powerful and concentrated profile from a very good harvest that allowed them to get a ripe wine with 14% alcohol, good freshness and better integrated oak than in the past. The wine went through an élevage in 15% Stockinger foudre and the rest in barrels, still 60% of them new. It has a juicy palate and moderate varietal character, coming through as soft and sleek with round tannins and a dry finish. 7,365 bottles were filled in February 2020.
