Niederberg Helden Riesling Spatlese 2021

Mosel, Germany

The 2011 Spatlese is intense but betrays a little more elegance than you normally expect from Helden, juicy and beautifully balanced, this offers smooth ripe but bright flavours of citrus, peach golden delicious apple and spice character with a gentle hint of steeliness that gives the wine definition and vibrancy.

The Helden has heavier soils and a little less slate content than those of the Juffer and Juffer Sonnenuhr, typically producing wines that are more powerful, richer and earthier.

Thomas Haag of Schloss rates the 2011s highly: "They should age very well, a little different to classic vintages because of slightly lower acidity, they are similar to 2007 but purer. It is such an elegant vintage because of the lack of botrytis."

Niederberg Helden Riesling Spätlese 2021

Robert Parker (RP) : 94 Points (2021)

The 2021 Niederberg Helden Spätlese opens with a clear, intense, very elegant, savory and classic Spätlese nose, with blue slate splinters in its ripe but crisp and crunchy fruit. Lush and saline on the palate, this is a very elegant and balanced Spätlese with a coolish, crisp and mouthwatering finish. This is a picture-book Spätlese in the quaffable, savory rather than lush and sweet style. 7.5% stated alcohol. Natural cork. Tasted at the domaine in July 2022.
